

THE WILL OF MME. WALKER

NEW YORK, June 15.—The last will and testament of Madam Sarah Walker has been admitted to probate, and is a document very much steeping with the spirit of the life that it was made.

The entire business of the Madam J. Walker Manufacturing Company is left to her daughter, Lelia Walker Robinson (now Wilson) excepting a provision for the creation of a fund of $50,000 each to be invested by the trustees, and $50,000 each to be given for worthy charities, and the upkeep of her mansion on the Hudson, which is to be a memorial to Alice F. Kelly, formerly, is left $10,000 and a life position. A number of relatives and other friends are given various amounts from $50,000. The following institutions have been given $5,000 each: Daytons

Normal and Industrial Institute, Massena, Idaho; Industrial School, Old Polk, Idaho; Indianapolis: Old Polk, Home, Louis; and Haines Institute, Louisville, Ky. Tuskegee University, $200; University of Wisconsin, $200. Other items include $25 for month for Harry Hudson, St. Louis; $1000 for a new house, Asa Prosser, Louisville, Ky. $5000 and a house and lot to her niece, Thiraprien Breedlove of Los Angeles; $2000 to Violet Davis, bookkeeper; $1000 to Maxine Wilson, a friend of Pittsburg; $10,000 to Mae Lindenson, granddaughter; $10,000 to B. Ransom, Goddich, and $2000 to wife; $10,000 to H. B. Ross; $1000

COLORED WOMAN IS APPOINTED ON NEBRASKA BOARD

OMAHA, Neb., June 18.—Three members, a majority of the public welfare board, protesting against the appointment of a Negro woman as a member of the board to succeed

Frank A. Kennedy, state labor commissioner, upon the grounds that they did not believe it possible to find a Negro woman fitted to hold the position, and that such an appointment would not be for the best interests of the Negro citizens, were overruled by Mayor Smith and the appointment made.

Mrs. Julia Hudlin, a widow, and former teacher, a native in Chicago and New York, secured the position upon the recommendation of the leading Negro citizens.

WESTERN BAPTIST CONVENTION COMING

CONVENTION COMING

Preparations are far under way for the coming of the Western Baptist convention which will convene in this city July 15, at Calvary Baptist Church, 3235 Morris street, of which Rev. Wm. Harris is pastor.

Rev. S. A. Mosely, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist Church of this city, stated that the coming session would be the largest in the history of the organization, as the reports that are coming in show that many new states, as well as churches, will be represented.

MRS. GAMBLE RETURNS.
Mrs. E. Slaughter Gamble just returned to the City after spending four weeks in Chicago in the interest of her business. She found her many agents there doing a wonderful work and the new Parlor at 3713 Indiana avenue is doing the greatest business of any hair dresser in Chicago. She will leave for the East in the early future.

ST. LOUIS COLORED ORPHAN HOME.

Owing to the fact that several of the children were not feeling well, we did not go out with the Simmons School picnics, but enjoyed a most delightful day on the beautiful lawn of the Home. All kinds of refreshments were donated. The ladies of the Presbyterian Church (white) sent one basket and one box of sandwiches, a jar of pickles, one-half dozen orange cakes, popcorn and peanuts. Mr. Harry Moore sent 3 cans of pineapple, 3 cans salmon, 4 pounds cheese, 4 pounds soda crackers, 2 packages grape-nuts, 1 package of fruit.

NEW YORK, June 18.—A charge of race discrimination against the United States Railroad Administration is contained in a letter sent to Walker D. PLEASANT GREEN PARK CHURCH

We are pleased to announce to our beloved pastor, Rev. J. K. Parker, in his faithful and untiring efforts in leading a congregation from the infancy to its present, are and have taught them so faithfully what God would have his people do. It has been a great joy to the hearts of men and women to the extent that over 200 Sunday morning prayer meeting roars assemble themselves in the lecture room every Sabbath to sing God's praises; to get the first fruits of the day's worship. Let us praise God for the blessings. At eleven o'clock the service was largely attended also throughout the day. At 8:30 p. m. Rev. L. B. Thomas of British Africa preached a very edifying sermon, text, St. Matthew 24 chapter, 6 verse, "The end of the world is at hand, be ye ready." The church and its auxiliaries will hold a grand picnic at O'Fallon Park grounds No. 1 and 2, Sunday June 24th. If you would like to enjoy your picnic, also your friends, follow the crowd. Refreshments on the grounds. Leave your baskets at home. Food for all. All children with their parents, also your friends, are invited. We are pleased to announce that Annie B. Crawford one of our counting ladies, was in the 1918 graduation class. Miss Crawford is a prospective young girl and faithful worker in the Junior work—E. D. Buford, reporter.

St. James Church

The pastor selected for his text from Gen. 22 Chap. 17 Sunday morning, "and God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven and said unto her: What alich thee, Hagar? Fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is." Subject, "The strength of weakness." In telling the story of Hagar the unfortunate Egyptian maid who was so cruelly wronged and unjustly treated by Abraham and Sarah. The pastor placed the blame where it belonged. He pictured Hagar a slave, unprotected, a victim of Abraham's lust, sorely afflicted and persecuted by Sarah; he fought with her despised infant, Ishmael in her arms; and at last in utter despair she placed her baby behind the sage bush in the desert, and abandoned her body to die. But the hour had not come. God heard the voice of the lad and decreed that out from his loins should come a great nation.

St. James Church

History is repeating itself today. As Abraham sought to get rid of him by banishing Hagar and her illegitimate child, America is attempting to get rid of the Negro by depriving him of his right, but God still lives. Fifteen million Blacks are behind the sage brush pleading for justice. In His own time and in His own way, God will hear and deliver us. At eight o'clock, the message was chosen from St. Matt. 11 chap. 12 v. 13. "Christ's method in dealing with moral conditions." The informal social given in honor of the new members was a decided success. A splendid program was rendered and a delightful evening was spent. Mrs. Deana Whitman has proven herself an efficient chairman of the Friendship Club. Bishop Demby of the Episcopal Church will be the guest of St. James and preach at the evening service next Sunday. He is a man of power and brings a wonderful message. Hear him. Pastor Peck will preach at eleven o'clock.

St. James Church

Good service were enjoyed all day at the above named church. Scripture Lesson was read by the pastor, from Psalm 10:3. Sermon at 11 a. m. Sunday school 1:30 p. m. B. A. V. P. U. 6:30 p. m. The Bible class meets every Tuesday night. A big rally will take place on the 5th Sun. day. As we are contemplating leaving a home for our church, we want that day, by the help of our sister churches and friends to raise $1100. We will enter our new home on the 1st Sunday in September. He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord. Come to the big church building 19th and Morgan Sts. Rev. A. Dixon, pastor.

St. James Church

The spirit of unity marks the success of each auxiliary in this campaign. We are sure of going over the top July 27 at the basket dinner and rally. Every church is requested to send a representative. Twelve ministries officiated at the young men's service Sunday. Rev. Bernhardt will preach for District No. 2 at 8 p. m. Sunday. At 8 p. m. Rev. P. H. Noel will preach. 7:30 p. m. Lord's supper was observed. Pastor Harold officiating. Thanks to Bro. Ball and wife for the success of the lawn entertainment. Come to the Friendship church. Rev. A. P. Harrell, secretary.

St. James Church

The light is on Christian soldiers, if you are a friend prove it, if you are a well wisher, be present with us in our struggles to reach the top. Sunday June 22nd should be a turning point in our lives to do a better and nobler work for God in a larger field of labor. Will you help us to realize our dreams, our hopes? Your contributions, if small will help. Please send us your aid. Greater blessings are in store for you and us. Last Sunday's services were, though sparsely attended by the faithful few, but climatic conditions do not deter in their worship to God. Pastor's text at 11:00, "Drive and go forward," slack and the riding for me except I bid them." 2 Kings 4:24. All were fired with enthusiasm by these choice words skillfully manipulated to fit our present needs. At 2 p. m. the Sabbath School observed Children's day with song and voice attuned merrily to the occasion. Father-Friends of Lovejoy, Ill., extruded all hands at 3 p. m. "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness; even so must the Son of Man be lifted up. And whosoever believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life." The Tennessie Eagles wishes to pay tribute to its well wishers and co-workers Sunday night; please be present with us on our night next Sunday. Free dinner at five o'clock.

St. James Church

Though heavy our load has been we have succeeded in overcoming, being quite a few number, we have accomplished the goal of our mission. We have left Rev. Thomas to be our pastor, and faithfully carry on the work in his absence. Rev. Thomas preached a wonderful sermon for us on last Sunday. "We are not bound by the law."
